There has been a common interest amongst our students - BUGS! Many of the children are fearless bug hunters. And the rollie pollies have been no match for them! The children have learned to look in crevices and under rocks.

You've probably seen the children looking for bugs on our campus or heard their bug conversations. Here is a Goodreads list of books on bugs that can expand their knowledge and support their interests. Have fun! https://www.goodreads.com/list/show/189303.Bug_Books_For_Kids
